

PRICE CITY LIBRARY BOARD MEETING APRIL 12TH 2021

Present: Amy Richens, Wendy Hughes, Fitzgerald Petersen, Tawnya Kulow, Tina Rowley and Layne Miller

Excused: Bret Cammans, Madalyn Johnson and Lanis Ogilvie

Motion to approve the minutes, Monthly statistics and Program Reports made by Amy Richens and seconded by Fitzgerald Petersen

Tawnya informed the board that the library has resumed doing in person Story Hour. A new requirement for it is that parent will need to sign up in advance. There is a limit of 10 children for each time. This is to make it a more controlled situation. They are not doing crafts yet but there is a take home craft that they can take with them. Amy offered to help with Story Hour if Tawnya needs any help.

Layne Miller wanted to give the board an update on International Days. Initially the idea was to move all the activities down to main street but the city just does not have the capability to provide the electricity that is needed for that. So, the idea now is to have all of the concerts on 4th North. That will open up Washington Park for vendors. The opening ceremonies will still be held at the Peace Gardens. Layne also let everyone know that Price City will resume live Culture Connections starting on May 15th. The performer scheduled for May 15th Culture Connection will be Shuffle.

Tina Rowley introduced the new board member Fitzgerald Petersen (Fitz) who was in attendance, Lanis Ogilvie and Madalyn Johnson who were both excused. Katie Jones who turned in a letter of intent but has not been sworn in due to her busy schedule it has been left open to her if she chooses to do so.

Layne would like it on the agenda for next month to discuss the Friends of Price City Library organization.

Amy would like now that it's spring to start addressing the Little Library project again.

Layne would like to see more signage for the ramp and also would like to see some artwork or decorations on the ramp to make it a pleasant and inviting place for children.

Next board meeting will be May 10th at 4:00 pm

Motion to adjourn made by Wendy Hughes seconded by Layne Miller
