motion to approve the Program Reports and Monthly Statistics made by Fitzgerald Petersen and seconded by Maddy Johnson.

V. Board Members informational comments on pertinent items not on the agenda:

Fitzgerald Petersen let the board know that there is a gentleman who has been trying to start a Chess club at the library. The gentleman would like the library to supply some chess boards Fitzgerald volunteered to buy some chess boards to donate.

VI. Public comments:

no public comments were made at this time.

VII. New Business:

A. National Family Literacy Day: November 1st is National Family Literacy Day.

The Price City Library board has voted to unanimously to send the National Family Literacy Day Proclamation to Price City Council to be signed by Mayor Michael Kourianas.

B. Library Fines: Fitzgerald Peteresen would like to start a discussion as to whether the Price City Library should charge fines or not. Other larger libraries have eliminated fines and have actually seen an increase in late books being returned. The question was raised as whether fines are a hardship for certain members of the community. The library does have somethings in place to lessen the effects of fines on people such as Free Fine Fridays and a cut off of 2.00 dollars per item. A committee was formed by the board to further discuss this issue. Fitzgerald Petersen, Jason Olsen and Tina Rowley are on the committee and will meet to discuss library fines.

VIII. Ongoing business:

- A. New Members: Three new Library Board members will be sworn in at the Price City Council Meeting on October 13th. The new members are Tom Alleman, Sydnie Callahan and Robin Hussey.
- B. Little Libraries: There is no new information about the Little Library project at this time.

IX. Agenda items for the next meeting:

no new agenda items at this time

X. Adjournment:

motion to adjourn made by Tina Rowley seconded by Lani Ogilvie.

Next meeting will be on November 8th 2021.
