

International Days Citizen of the Year 2024

Tanner Tamillos

Tanner Ori-Tamillos was born and raised in Price, Utah. The oldest of 3 children, she had a wonderful childhood growing up on the family farm. While growing up, she was known as the neighborhood kid, who always visited family and friends and stopped by their houses to see if anyone needed help or just to have a chat over a cup of Folgers.

Tanner met her high school sweetheart and soul mate Julian at Carbon High in 2011. She and Julian got married in 2021 and in 2023 welcomed their beautiful baby boy, Mateo, into this world. Her life dream was to be a mom and now she gets to enjoy that full time as a stay-at-home mommy, thanks to her hardworking husband.

From a very young age, she had a way with people and a love for animals. To this day, her family still says, if you need help with anything or need details on what is going on in our community, just ask Tanner. She always checks on her family, friends, and community members after any situation happens. She loves Carbon County and shows her love for her community whenever she can. Most recently, she found an injured dog who was shot and left for dead up Consumers Road. Her love for others is so strong that it was easy to know just what she needed to do. She was so quick to get this dog medical attention and started raising funds to pay the vet bills. She will forever be grateful to her community for pulling together and helping her save this sweet boy's life. There is no better place than Price and its people. The dog, now named BluJay, lives with her cousins Kim and Will along with their 3 boys Liam, Lincoln, and Noah. BluJay is alive and thriving in his new home. Without our community this would not have been possible and BluJay would not be here today.

This year, she is thanking her community for their generosity and nominations for this honor they have given her. Price is forever her home and a special place. Celebrating International Days and community events is even more special since she gets to spend it with her family, husband and most excitedly, her son.
