

Dynamic and versatile Americana musician Kate MacLeod brings her authentic music to you through her original songs, instrumentals, and modern renditions of traditional music. Since her first recording, her songs have been recorded by other artists from California to the Czech Republic. Kate has toured in the United States, Canada, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Italy, and the UK. She was chosen for the Best of the West Award, 2019, by the Far-West division of the Folk Alliance International. In addition to her Americana music, she is a versatile composer and received the 2019 Alfred Lambourne Friends of the Great Salt Lake Award for an original violin duet. Kate will be releasing some exciting music in the near future, including her collection of music inspired by the Utah region.
