

Kelly Vogrinec

Kelly is 21 and was raised in Price City; she has been performing all over Utah since she was 10. This is her 5th year performing at the Helper Arts Festival and she looks forward to coming every year. She has also performed for Sandy City 4th Of July, at the Casablanca Hotel in Mesquite, Nevada, had an ongoing gig at Rocky Mountain Pizza Company for 5 consecutive years, took 2nd place in Sandy Idol, and sang the national anthem at for Nascar and Rio Tinto Stadium, but she always finds herself back in Helper for the Arts Festival. She is inspired by old jazz and folk music and loves to sing those along with classic rock and acoustic renditions
