

Picky Out the Stingers is a four piece, acoustic string band. They play original music in styles across the bluegrass spectrum, including newgrass, country, honkytonk and more.

The band draws inspiration from the original bluegrass founders, classic Americana folk, and mountain music from the South, Appalachia and the West.

Based in Salt Lake, the band travels and plays festivals, events, and local hot spots around the Rocky Mountain West.